In this case this Certificate decision was based on the revised permitted development rights for householders that the Government brought into effect on 15 April 2015. For further advice on the current householder permitted development guidance an interactive guide is available on the Planning Portal on: http://www.planningportal.gov.uk/permission/house

Notes

1. This certificate is issued solely for the purpose of section 192 of the Town & Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended). It is not a planning permission, and it is not a Building Regulations approval – see note 5 below.
2. It certifies that the development specified in the First Schedule taking place on land described in the Second Schedule was lawful and was not liable to enforcement action under section 172 of the 1990 Act on that date.
3. This certificate applies only to the extent of the development described in the First Schedule and identified on the attached plan. Any development which is different from that described or which relates to other land may render the owner or occupier liable to enforcement action.
4. The effect of the certificate is also qualified by the proviso in section 192 of the 1990 Act, as amended, which states that the lawfulness of a described development is only conclusively presumed where there has been no material change, before the use is instituted or the operations begun, in any of the matters relevant to determining such lawfulness.
